TEENAGE BEHAVIOR IS TOPIC

The Senior Girl Scout Council of the Harbor Section was held recently at the Scout house of Troop 610. Guest of the evening was Mrs. Lindemuth, personality instructor, who gave an interesting talk on the social behavior of teenagers. The main point of Mrs. Lindemuth's talk, which was followed by an open forum, concerned the social problems of Senior Girl Scouts.

Troop 610 recently held its traditional candlelight ceremony for the investiture of Dorothy Aigarme, Ann Freit, Joan Harlan and Antoinette Strellek. Scout laws, motto and slogan were reviewed.

Plans for the next meeting and ice skating party were completed.

Mrs. Beck, assistant leader, explained the annual Scout Cookie Sale, and Mrs. Rose Jones, leader, told the girls of the convalescence of Mrs. Claire Schwittek, assistant leader.

The plan into action and urged all parents to attend the community meeting.

ANSWERING PROMPTLY—GIVING OTHERS A FULL MINUTE TO ANSWER HER CALL—ARE FIRST ON JANIE'S LIST OF AIDS TO SERVICE.

How Janie helps herself to better service

1. "Allowing a little time between calls," says Janie, "gives others a chance to call me . . . and it's a nice party-line courtesy, too." So when she's getting the gang together for a picnic, or for any reason needs to make calls in a row, she waits several minutes between each one. "It's simple to make friends with others on our line. I just use the telephone the way I like them to."

2. Looking up numbers, Janie knows, is really important. "So easy to get them mixed up," she explains. "Why, I was just sure Babs' number was 8145 . . . but when I called her I got the drug store. Turned out her number was 8415. So unless I'm really sure of a number, I'm going to look it up in the telephone book." That's a good tip for all of us—teen-agers and grown-ups.

3. Getting the most from the telephone—and helping others get better service—depends in part on every telephone user. Facilities have doubled in the West in ten years. Your telephone is today one of your most valuable servants . . . saving time, saving steps. And it still does its job for just a few pennies a call.
